

Education and Training 2021-2022 annual review

Purpose for noting

Author: Deputy Director of Authorisations and New Business

Approver: Chief Executive

Summary

The paper comprises of three sections.

- 1. Annual Education Review update. The CLC conducts an annual education review with SQA and its approved Centre each December. The review focuses on the day to day mechanics of operating and maintaining the SQA/CLC Diplomas; and the trends for student uptake of the CLC qualifications. The SQA annual review meeting is scheduled for 25 July 2022.
- 2. The de-approval of the SQA centre, the Convey 365, trading as The Conveyancing Academy (TCA).
- 3. Expansion of the CLC education and training framework

Recommendations

Council is asked to note the contents of this report.

Risk management

Certain risks are being managed at operational level but this will be reviewed pending the outcome of actions in the three sections and reported back to Council via ARC

Financial impact

There are no financial impacts arising from this paper

Diversity and inclusion impact

The ability to access funded routes to qualify in a professional capacity is an important factor for social and economic mobility to promote equality, inclusion and diversity in the profession.

Communications requirements

The paper is produced for Council only. Parts of this paper may be extracted for future publication.

Publication status

This report is not for publication though parts may be extracted for future publication elsewhere.