SECTION 1: Making the right application

1. CLC LICENCE

The CLC issues three types of licence, (i) Conveyancing, (ii) Probate and (iii) Conveyancing and Probate Licence. Applicants are required to satisfy the Council that they are a fit and proper person to be granted a licence in accordance with section 15(1) of the Administration of Justice Act 1985.

2. CLC LAWYERS SEEKING TO REINSTATE A SUSPENDED LICENCE AFTER A PERIOD OF DISQUALIFICATION:

The CLC's overriding principle when approving applications to reinstate a licence is that the applicant must intend to work in a supervised and not supervisory capacity for the licence duration. When you have been subject to regulatory action and/or a disciplinary sanction you may be asked to provide details of what action you have taken to improve your knowledge and de-risk your practise.

FAQs reinstating a expired Licence

3. DUAL AND CROSS QUALIFYING PROFESSIONALS

The CLC encourages qualified lawyers with relevant specialist experience to consider converting to CLC regulation. You will enjoy the benefits of being Authorised Person in terms of the Legal Services Act 2007 and will be regulated by a specialist regulator with rule book tailored to conveyancing and probate practice. A full year individual CLC licence is £400 and your first individual licence fee will be calculated on a pro rata basis.

11. The CLC does not refund any value of the pro-rata licence fee once invoiced as a result of late payment. The CLC operates a no refund policy and will decline any request to have the original pro-rata fee re-calculated due to late or deferred payment.
